

HARTFORD (Conn.)

COURANT

Circ.: m. 104,765

S. 145,527

Front Edit Other

Page Page

Date: 3 1959

News Items, or Strips In the Wind?

To the Editor of The Courant:

The National Review Conservative Weekly says the following:

The price of Soviet permission for Nixon to visit Poland was this: Khrushchev, according to Communist plans, will visit Cuba en route home, with possible courtesy calls on Panama and Colombia.

United States Navy planes have spotted a rocket-launching pad in Oriente Province, Cuba.

The Senate Internal Security Subcommittee has evidence that the CIA, with the benevolent aid of Dr. Milton Eisenhower, has assisted the Castro movement in Cuba but hearings will be kept

CPYRGHT

Sarah Conroy Lowe

Bar 14 1

FOIAb3b